The cinema year in Switzerland 2018: Sobering result – Swiss filmmaking holds ground

Following a slight recovery in the 2017 Swiss cinema market, 2018 recorded a strong fall in attendance numbers of 12.51%. With «merely» 12'090'305 admissions and a turnover of CHF 183'639'482.—, the year of 2018 was marked by the lowest number of cinema attendances since 1995 when ProCinema started its Switzerland-wide collation of figures.

German-speaking Switzerland, which experienced a 13.04% decline, saw the greatest fall. French-speaking Switzerland recorded a decline of 11.60% and Ticino similarly 7.90%. Compared across the entirety of Switzerland, the differences between large (KeyCities) and smaller (Non-KeyCities) towns were minimal. Rural cinemas in German-speaking Switzerland had to contend with the largest attendance drops of 14.51%.

Accounting for a 6.36% share (769'326 admissions) of the overall market, Swiss-made films managed to retain just under their pleasing previous-year's result and only dropped one ranking level compared to 2017 (from 3 to 4). The USA tops these rankings by country 66.77% (2017: 66.81%), ahead of France with 9.38% (2017: 10.60%) and Germany with 6.42% (2017: 5.81%). With 241'157 admissions, «WOLKENBRUCHS WUNDERLICHE REISE IN DIE ARME EINER SCHICKSE» was the most popular Swiss-made film. It enabled this novel adaptation by director Michael Steiner to reach number 11 in the list of the most successful Swiss films since 1995. «PAPA MOLL» (67'725 admissions), which commenced screenings in 2017, took second place among Swiss-made films in 2018, followed by the documentary «#FEMALE PLEASURE» (39'432 admissions). The breakdown of admissions for Swiss-made films across the language regions has hardly changed since 2017: German-speaking Switzerland 79.80%, French-speaking Switzerland 17.61% and Ticino 2.59%. Classified by genre, just under 60% of admissions were for fiction and 40% for documentary films.

The Top 3 films in the annual rankings, in total, achieved just under 1 million admissions (8.18%). The list is headed by «BOHEMIAN RHAPSODY» with 374'882 admissions, followed by «AVENGERS: INFINITY WAR» with 312'366 admissions and «FANTASTIC BEASTS: THE CRIMES OF GRINDELWALD» with 301'450 admissions. 24 of the Top 30 films were made in the USA, 2 in France, 2 in UK and one in Germany. These were complemented by the most successful Swiss film, which achieved a ranking of number 8. Among the Top 30 films, 11 were sequels (2017: 13) and 13 films were also screened in a 3D version in cinemas. In the reporting year, the 3D market share fell to under 15% of the entire market (2017: 17.87%) for the first time since this format was introduced nationwide. Only 6 3D films managed to achieve more than 50% of the admissions for their non-3D counterparts. It was only in multiplexes that 3D films, comprising 21.53% of all multiplex admissions, stood firm at levels similar to those in 2017 (22.53%). Across the different language regions, 3D films were distributed in proportions similar to those of the preceding year. German-speaking Switzerland 76.67%, French-speaking Switzerland 22.36% and Ticino 0.97%.

The number of premieres of European films in 2018 fell to 197 (2017: 237). The number of admissions for European films also fell to 2'630'894 (2017: 2'952'986). Nevertheless, the overall market share remained fairly constant at 21.84% (2017: 22.63%).

A total of 32 screens in 16 cinema complexes were either opened or reopened during the reporting year. Of these, 10 screens were instated in Bern (KeyCity) and 22 in smaller towns (Non-KeyCities). Standing in contrast to the above openings were the closures of 20 cinema screens. 14 in KeyCities: Basel (1), Bern (10) and St. Gallen (3). A total of 610 cinema screens contributed to the annual figures. Of these, 592 were still active at the beginning of 2019.

The number of cinema screens able to project digitally is 98.85%, with 53.77% of screens also able to project in 3D. 4K-quality digital projection takes place in 60 screens and 75 screens can also show HFR (high frame rate) projections.

361 screens or over 60% of all screens have spaces reserved for wheelchair users and 112 screens (2017: 87) or 18% are equipped with audio induction loops to assist hearing aid users.

The opening of the «Cinedome» in Muri near Bern saw the number of multiplexes rise to 15. Attracting over 4.5 million cinemagoers, the 156 multiplex cinemas accounted for over 37% of all admissions.

Viewed from an international perspective, the results are mixed. In Europe (EU 28), figures from the UNIC report that cinemagoers fell overall by approximately 2.9% to approx. 950 million compared to the previous year. The UK (+3.8%), Denmark (+4.0%) and Norway (+3.0%) countered this trend. France (-4.3%), Spain (-2.0%) and Sweden (-1.0%) on the other hand populated the midfield of this trend. Germany (-13.9%), Austria (-11.45%) and Italy (-6.9%) all had to contend with falls in cinemagoers that were similar to Switzerland.

New records were set in the US, both for the number of admissions at 1.305 billion (+5.8%) and for turnover at $11.891 billion (+7.4%). China too also posted new record attendances and generated a turnover of almost $ 9 billion in 2018. These figures were achieved in almost 10'000 cinemas with approx. 54'000 screens.

A total of 2'118 films (2017: 1'969) were screened in Swiss cinemas in 2018. These comprised 507 premieres (2017: 534) and 1'611 re-runs. The films came from 67 countries of origin (2017: 71) and were produced in 62 different original languages (2017: 57). Close to 95% of admissions were for films screened in four languages. English 73.87% (2017: 74.56%), French 9.78% (2017: 6.57%), German 8.33% (2017: 6.57%) and 2.58% in Swiss German (2017: 4.51%).
